Speaker	Timestamp (MM:SS - MM:SS)	Content
Defense attorney	00:02 - 00:09	Did you communicate at all with Mr. Depp in the days following the plane outburst incident?
Defendant	00:09 - 00:10	Yes I did.
Defense attorney	00:13 - 00:14	Please tell the jury about those communications.
Defendant	00:15 - 00:23	I heard from him, um, directly, I also heard from him through his assisstants, who were texting for him.
Plaintiff's attorney	00:24 - 00:225	Objection, Your Honor, hearsay.
Judge	00:25 - 00:25	I'll sustain the objection.
Defense attorney	00:25 - 00:33	You're not allowed to testify about the text messages with his assisstants but can you tell about your communications with Mr. Depp?
Defendant	00:36 - 00:40	OK. It's kind of confusing 'cause he was texting through them.
Plaintiff's attorney	00:41 - 00:42	Objection, Your Honor.
Judge	00:42 - 00:47	I sustain the objection and I'll strike that from the record you just regard that from the testimony. Please answer the question.
Defense attorney	00:47 - 00:51	Just confine it to the communications you had with Mr. Depp, please.
Defendant	00:53 - 02:26	Um, that he was sorry and told me that he was in a blackout. He didn't remember everything but what he did remmber, he was ashamed of. Uh, he begged to forgive him. He said he understood and forgive me, forgave me if I, if I never wanted to speak to him again. I, um... He texted me at one point and then, and then I didn't respond right away. And then he texts me again that he understood that I have made my decision to move on and good luck, and I was better for it and... And then continue to, um, contact me. I spoke to him when I was in New York on the phone and he said that he was, um, had, he had a chip or, um, he was going to meetings that he, um, I think, at the time, mentioned a sober, um, another celebrity that was kind of advising him on sobriety or not advising him but you know, encouraging him and he was saying, well, look, you know, me and this person we're, we're doing, we even went to a meeting, um, I got three days sober, four days sober, and that was the last time the monster [would] never come back, monster [would] never come back [...]

Kind Regards,
